HEALTHY WORKPLACES/HEALTHY FAMILIES ACT OF 2014 PAID SICK LEAVE

Entitlement:

- An employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California for 30 or more days within a year from the beginning of employment is entitled to paid sick leave.
- Paid sick leave accrues at the rate of one hour per every 30 hours worked, paid at the employee's regular wage rate. Accrual shall begin on the first day of employment or July 1, 2015, whichever is later.
- Accrued paid sick leave shall carry over to the following year of employment and may be capped at 48 hours or 6 days. However, subject to specified conditions, if an employer has a paid sick leave, paid leave or paid time off policy (PTO) that provides no less than 24 hours or three days of paid leave or paid time off, no accrual or carry over is required if the full amount of leave is received at the beginning of each year in accordance with the policy.

Usage:

- An employee may use accrued paid sick days beginning on the 90th day of employment.
- An employer shall provide paid sick days upon the oral or written request of an employee for themselves or a family member for the diagnosis, care or treatment of an existing health condition or preventive care, or specified purposes for an employee who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- An employer may limit the use of paid sick days to 24 hours or three days in each year of employment.

Retaliation or discrimination against an employee who requests paid sick days or uses paid sick days or both is prohibited. An employee can file a complaint with the Labor Commissioner against an employer who retaliates or discriminates against the employee.

For additional information, you may contact your employer or the local office of the Labor Commissioner. Locate the office by looking at the list of offices on our website <http://www.dir.ca.gov/dlse/DistrictOffices.htm> using the alphabetical listing of cities, locations, and communities. Staff is available in person and by telephone.

Entitlement

- ▶ An employee working in California, on or after July 1, 2015, for 30 or more days within a year is entitled to paid sick leave.
 - Applies to temporary, part-time and full-time employees.
- ▶ Paid sick leave accrues at the rate one hour per every 30 hours worked.
 - An employee who works 40 hours per week accrues 1.33 hours per week
- ▶ Paid at the employees current rate of pay.
- ▶ Accrued paid sick leave must carry over to the following year and may be capped at 48 hours (or 6 days) based on a policy.

Usage

- ▶ May begin using accrued sick leave on the 90th day of employment.
- ▶ An employee may use paid sick leave for:
 - Themselves or a family member for the diagnosis, care or treatment of an existing health condition or preventive care
 - Specified purposes for an employee who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking
 - Employer may limit use at 24 hours or 3 days per year. Employee needs to be notified prior to implementation.
 - Employer may lend paid sick days to an employee in advance of accrual.

Alternative to Accrual

- ▶ Employer can provide 24 hours or 3 days at the beginning of each calendar year, anniversary date or twelve months basis.
- ▶ Employer won't need to track accrual but will need to track and display usage on wage statement or other written document.
- ▶ Under this method, employer is not required to provide for carry over of sick leave.

6 Steps to Successful Compliance

1

Display poster on paid sick leave where employees can read it easily. Document policy and share with staff.

2

Provide written notice of paid sick leave information to individual employee at the time of hire.

3

Provide for accrual of one hour of sick leave for 30 hours of work for each eligible employee to use.

4

Allow eligible employees to use accrued paid sick leave upon request or notification.

5

Show how many hours of sick leave an employee has available. This must be on a pay stub or a document issued the same day as a paycheck.

6

Keep records showing how many hours have been earned and used for three years.

Paid Time Off (PTO)

- ▶ Employers may offer more time and usage than provided in Paid Sick Leave provision but not less.
- ▶ PTO policy must be in writing.
- ▶ PTO plans will be found compliant if they provide both the same hours for usage AND for the same purposes as outlined in Paid Sick Leave provision.

Sick Leave Pay

- Same as hourly rate.
- If an employee is paid commission or piece rate, then divide total compensation for previous 90 calendar days by number of hours worked and pay this rate.
- Employee was paid a piece rate of $0.36 per square foot for 16,500 square feet during 400 hours of work in a 90-day period. He earned $5,940.
 - His hourly rate for paid sick leave is $$5,940 \div 400 \text{ hours} = \14.85 per hour
- Employee is paid on commissions only. In a 90-day period, she worked 480 hours and earned $9,000.
 - Her hourly rate for paid sick leave is $$9,000 \div 480 \text{ hours} = \18.75 per hour

Local Ordinances

- Employer will comply with both the local and California laws.
- Employer will have to provide the more generous provision or benefit to an employee, where they differ between local and state laws.
- In some areas, such as the City and County of San Francisco for example, there are separate ordinances requiring paid sick leave. If the provisions of the local ordinance require more accrued sick leave, that provision would take precedence as it is more generous. For employers in the City and County of San Francisco there may be a higher rate of accrued sick leave.

Exemptions

Employees covered by a valid collective bargaining agreement (CBA) which provides for paid sick days

In-home support services employees
(IHSS)

Airline flight deck or cabin crew employees who have equivalent benefits

Separation

- ▶ An employer is not required to pay out accrued, unused paid sick days at the time of termination, resignation or retirement.
- ▶ If an employee is rehired within one year, previously accrued and unused paid sick days shall be reinstated.
- ▶ If employer has a separate PTO plan, a final payout of PTO is due at separation.

Protection from Retaliation

- ▶ Paid Sick Leave law protects employees who:
 - use sick leave,
 - file a complaint with the Labor Commissioner's Office,
 - allege a violation of these rights,
 - cooperate in an investigation or prosecution,
 - or oppose a policy or practice prohibited by this article

Retaliation Prohibited

- ▶ Prohibits an employer from
 - denying an employee the right to use paid sick leave,
 - discharging,
 - threatening to discharge,
 - demoting,
 - suspending
 - or in any manner discriminating against an employee
- ▶ There is a REBUTTABLE presumption of unlawful retaliation if the employer acts in a manner described above within 30 days of the employee's request for leave or other protected activity.

An Employee May File a Paid Sick Leave Claim

- ▶ Against employers who
 - Unlawfully withhold payment for use of accrued sick days
 - Fail to provide a statement of accrual of sick leave
 - Fail to accurately track accrued sick leave
 - Require an employee to use a full-day or half-day absence for any use of sick leave. However, an employer may require a minimum of 2 hours for each use of paid sick leave
 - Deny payment for sick leave if the employee fails to provide prior notice for an unforeseen illness
 - Require the worker requesting sick leave to find a replacement to cover his scheduled shift or assignment
 - Deny sick leave due to a failure to provide details

Administrative Penalties May Be Awarded

- ▶ An employee need only assert that the sick leave was for a covered purpose in general terms
- ▶ An employee may recover
 - An administrative penalty equal to the paid sick leave x 3 or $250 whichever is greater, but in no case greater than an aggregate penalty of $4,000.
 - The administrative penalty may also include a sum of $50 per day for each day the violation occurred or continued.

Administrative Penalty Example

- ▶ Employee earns $12.50 per hour and works 8 hours per day for $100 per day
 - Employee was denied 3 days of accrued sick leave
 - Penalty is 3 times the accrued sick leave
 - $100 per day for 3 days x 3 = $900
 - Because this amount is greater than $250, employee is awarded $900
- ▶ Employee is also entitled to $50 per day until the violation is corrected.

Scenario #1

Situation

Employer hires seasonal workers paid on a piece rate basis.
Some employees return year after year, while others only work one season.

Questions

Does the employer have to maintain records of accrued paid sick leave?

Are returning employees entitled to carry over of un-used leave?

Does the employer have to pay out un-used sick leave at the end of season?

Answers

Yes

Yes, if they return within one year from the date of separation

No

Scenario #2

Situation

Employer pays minimum wage plus commission. An employee started working on March 1, 2015, and received $1.00 raise after 6 months.

Questions

When can the employee begin to use sick leave?

How is paid sick leave rate calculated?

How long does employer have to keep sick leave accrual and carryover records?

Answers

As soon as they accrue paid sick leave, after July 1st.

Look at 90-day period prior to the sick leave being used for total earnings and divide by number of hours worked to get hourly rate.

3 years.

Scenario #3

Situation

Employer has four distinct classes of employees: front office staff, warehouse workers, sales force and managers. The sales force is paid base salary plus commission. Warehouse workers are members of CBA.

Questions

Can the employer offer PTO to managers only?

Does each class of employee accrue paid sick leave at different rates?

How does the employer handle CBA members?

Answers

Yes, as long as PTO plan is equal to or more generous than the paid sick leave provisions.

Possibly, different classes of employees accrue differently. Warehouse workers are under CBA.

Employees subject to a CBA are exempt from Paid Sick Leave if the requirements for the exemption are met pursuant to LC Section 245.5(a)(1) and (2).
