

Chapter 8. Death Benefits

Death benefits are payments to a spouse, child/children, or any other dependent(s) if an employee dies from a work-related injury or illness. The amount of this benefit depends on the number of total and/or partial dependents at the time of the worker's death.

In the case of one or more totally dependent minors, after payment of amounts specified in the below chart, death benefits will continue until the youngest minor child turns 18 years old (disabled minors receive benefits for life).

Death benefits are paid at the total temporary disability rate, but not less than $224.00 per week. The period within which to commence proceedings for the collection of death benefits will vary, but cannot be commenced more than 240 weeks from the date of injury/death.

The amount of death benefits depends on the number of total and/or partial dependent(s) at the time of the worker's death. In regards to burial expenses, the employer is liable for the reasonable burial expenses of an employee who has died as a result of a work-related injury. See the chart below for maximum burial expense amounts. For more information, visit the website <https://www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/WorkersCompensationBenefits.htm#DeathBenefits>.
