

SASH

SCHOOL ACTION FOR SAFETY AND HEALTH

Free Training for School District Employees

Presented by the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation and the Labor Occupational Health Program at UC Berkeley

The SASH training program is a FREE hands-on, interactive, 1-day course that trains key school district employees to become health and safety leaders for their district. Participants will learn key occupational safety and health concepts, how to develop an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP), and how to take a leadership role in promoting health and safety for school employees.

Who Should Attend this Training?

- Human resource department staff responsible for writing the district's IIPP or overseeing other health and safety activities
- Directors of maintenance and operations
- Head custodians and other department managers
- Risk managers and loss control staff
- Union representatives
- Members of employee health and safety committees

The SASH Training Program will come to your area.

Please register for the class by contacting Joselyn Delgado at LOHP: 510-643-8483 or email: joselyn@berkeley.edu.

Participants receive a course binder with factsheets, tools, occupation-specific tip sheets for school employees, a poster, a guidebook for writing an IIPP, and other resources. They also receive a certificate of completion designating them as SASH Coordinators for their district.

The SASH Program is a statewide initiative to help school districts reduce the high rate of work-related injuries and illnesses among school employees. The program is funded by the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation and is endorsed by State Superintendent, Jack O'Connell.
