

Small Business Supervisors and Managers...

- FREE 2-hour Safety Training Program for managers and supervisors in English or Spanish
- FREE safety training materials to use with your employees

This program helps small business managers and owners to:

- Provide a one-hour interactive safety training tailored to your business.
- Engage workers in your safety program.
- Identify ways to prevent injuries in your workplace.
- Meet Cal/OSHA training requirements.

Using these training materials, your employees will be able to:

- Identify safety hazards in their workplace.
- Learn about and find solutions to hazards in their workplace.
- Contribute to a safe working environment.

"This program was a great experience. We ended up with simple training materials that I can use with my staff to teach about health and safety in our restaurant. It's amazing the respect they have for the safety situation now." --Hector Garcia, Store Manager, Picante, Berkeley

The Small Business Supervisor Safety Training Program is funded by the California Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation.

Restaurant-specific materials available in English and Spanish at:
<http://www.dir.ca.gov/chswc/sbmmaterials.htm>

General Small Business Health and Safety materials available at:
<http://www.dir.ca.gov/chswc/SBMRhealthandsafety.htm>

New materials just developed for the janitorial industry!

For more information about this program or to schedule a customized training workshop, contact:

In Southern California

Laurie Kominski
Labor Occupational Safety & Health Program, UCLA
310 794-5992
lauriek@ucla.edu
www.losh.ucla.edu

In Northern California

Diane Bush
Labor Occupational Health Program, UC Berkeley
510-643-2424
dbush@berkeley.edu
www.lohp.org