) PURSUANT TO SETTLEMENT AT 15) CONCLUSION OF HEARING
Respondent.)
16)

17 The above-captioned matter, a petition to determine 18 controversy under Labor Code §1700.44, came on regularly for 19 hearing on June 30, 2005 in Los Angeles, California, before the 20 Labor Commissioner's undersigned hearing officer. Petitioners
21 were represented by Jason Tanenbaum, a member of Wondergoat
22 Records, LLC. Respondent was represented by attorney Phillip M.
23 Dezen.

24 At the conclusion of the hearing, a tentative decision was 25 announced. All parties present agreed to comply with this 26 tentative decision, and to waive a written decision. Thus, this 27 matter was settled pursuant to this agreement, under which 28 Respondent was to pay a total of $1,265.02 as follows:

- 1 1) $665.02 to Jason Tanenbaum/Wondergoat Records,
- 2 2) $400.00 to the musicians in Cap Gun Suicide, and
- 3 3) $200.00 to the musicians in 2 Bucks Short.

4 No amounts were found due to Stephen De Pace or to the musicians
5 in the Downtown Strutters.

6 It was agreed that these payments would be made no later
7 than August 1, 2005, and that Jason Tanenbaum would devote his 8 best efforts to ascertaining the full names and addresses of the 9 members of Cap Gun Suicide and 2 Bucks Short, and the way in 10 which the payments should be apportioned among these musicians.

11 Respondent has now provided a check to the Labor
12 Commissioner, payable to Jason Tanenbaum/Wondergoat Records, in 13 the amount of $665.02. This payment (which is hereby being 14 transmitted by the Labor Commissioner, along with a copy of this 15 Dismissal, to Mr. Tanenbaum) satisfies Respondent's obligation
16 to Jason Tanenbaum and Wondergoat Records.

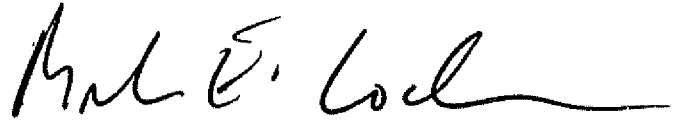

17 As for the remaining amounts owed to the musicians in Cap
18 Gun Suicide and 2 Bucks Short, as of yet no information has been 19 provided to Respondent to enable her to make payments to the 20 individuals entitled to receive these funds. Consequently, based 21 on representations made by Respondent's counsel, Phillip M.
22 Dezen, the total of $600.00 owed to these musicians has been 23 placed and will be held in Mr. Dezen's Client Trust Account, for 24 payment to the appropriate musicians until either: 1) Respondent
25 and Mr. Dezen, with the assistance of Mr. Tanenbaum, can identify 26 the individuals entitled to payment and the amount owed to each 27 such individual, or 2) the Labor Commissioner's office instructs 28 Mr. Dezen to forward this amount, or the remaining portion of

1 this amount after some but not all eligible persons have been
2 paid, to the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement as trustee
3 for those persons identified as eligible for payment but not 4 located.

5 Based on the settlement of this controversy under the terms
6 set forth hereinabove, the petition to determine controversy is 7 hereby dismissed.
