HOW THE IBR FINAL DETERMINATION WAS MADE

MAXIMUS Federal Services Chief Coding Specialist reviewed the case file and researched pertinent coding and billing standards to reach a determination. In some cases a physician reviewer was employed to review the clinical aspects of the care to help make a determination. He/she has no affiliation with the employer, employee, providers or the claims administrator. The expert reviewer was selected based on his/her clinical experience, education, background, and expertise in the same or similar specialties that evaluate and/or treat the medical condition and disputed items/services.

ANALYSIS AND FINDING

Based on review of the case file the following is noted:

- ISSUE IN DISPUTE: Provider is dissatisfied with denial of code WC012 for a missed appointment on date of service 12/2/2014.
- Claims Administrator denied code indicating on the Explanation of Review “No payment is being made as none is necessarily owed.”
- Documentation received for this review included the injured worker’s appointment notice for date of service 12/2/2014 at 5:15pm sent by Claims Administrator dated 11/24/2014. Provider was sent a copy of this notice as well.
- Also included for review was the Agreement Request sent by the Provider to the Claims Administrator documenting “Cancelation/No show fee $350 billed as WC012 (avoid charge with notice prior to 5 business days)”. Document is signed by a Claims Adjuster dated 10/28/2014.
- Based on information reviewed, reimbursement of $350.00 is due for the missed appointment billed as WC012.
