HOW THE IBR FINAL DETERMINATION WAS MADE

MAXIMUS Federal Services Chief Coding Specialist reviewed the case file and researched pertinent coding and billing standards to reach a determination. In some cases a physician reviewer was employed to review the clinical aspects of the care to help make a determination. He/she has no affiliation with the employer, employee, providers or the claims administrator. The expert reviewer was selected based on his/her clinical experience, education, background, and expertise in the same or similar specialties that evaluate and/or treat the medical condition and disputed items/services.

ANALYSIS AND FINDING

Based on review of the case file the following is noted:

- ISSUE IN DISPUTE: Provider is dissatisfied with denial of DME code E1399-LL.
- Claims Administrator denied code E1399 indicating in a letter of response “Per the claim handler, this claims has been settled and no further monies are due.”
- Documentation received includes the authorization from Claims Administrator which states “Requested/Approved Services: Requested: Home H-wave device – cervical (purchase) Approved: Home H-wave device – cervical (purchase) E1399”
- No other explanation was received as to why Claims Administrator authorized purchase of the H-wave device and then denied the claim once it was billed.
- Based on information in this review, reimbursement of E1399-LL is warranted.
- PPO contract reviewed shows a 25% discount is to be applied.
The table below describes the pertinent claim line information.
