III. Old Business

Review of CalPlan in view of AB 2358 proposed regulations.

Discussion on question asked of the Attorney General's office, Glen Reported that do to scheduling conflict they were not able to attend but had responded Regarding the CAC's question about whether the CalPlan can be repealed/rescinded, the short answer is yes. There are two ways of doing this. The first is through a Section 100 package. This is the simpler method, but approval is less likely because there are criteria that must be met. The second is through a rulemaking package.

There was a motion to ask for a written legal opinion, the motion was seconded and approved. This will be carried this over to the next meeting.

There was discussion on getting the information on the financial impact to the apprenticeship committees, DAS will reach out to small, medium, and large committees. This will be carried this over to the next meeting
