Review of New and Pending Bills which included no new bills. New bills will start to be released in January. AB 2011 Affordable Housing and High Road Jobs Act of 2022 was funded. This bill was signed by the governor on September 28, 2022. AB 2342 Community Economic Resilience Fund Program. went into law September 27, 2022. Existing law requires the program to provide financial support to establish and support high road transition collaboratives, as specified, and sets forth requirements for the program and collaboratives. Existing law provides planning grants to establish and support at least one collaborative per region in areas that have had disproportionate impacts due to COVID-19 and requires that implementation grants be awarded on a rolling and competitive basis to fund economic recovery, as specified. Existing law requires the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, working with the Office of Planning and Research, and the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development to manage the design and operation of the program solicitation and award processes. Existing law also sets forth outcome and reporting requirements for program grantees. One bill AB 2003 California Workforce Development Board: model career pathways. bills was vetoed, stating duplicate effort.
