

Riverside County Workforce Development Board

Workforce Development Board

Project Title

Inland Empire Designing Equitable Apprenticeships (IEDEA)

Amount Awarded:  $1,824,000

Key Partners:  LAUNCH
Goodwill

Local Workforce Development Boards:

Riverside & San Bernardino County Workforce Development Boards

Employers, Organizations, Industry Partners:

County of Riverside

Local Education Agencies and Academic Partners:

Riverside Community College District

Targeted Industries and/or Occupation:

Industries:  IT and Cybersecurity, Healthcare, Manufacturing, Transportation and Logistics, Public Sector

Occupations:  Computer User Support Specialist, Information Security Analysts, Registered Nurse, Pharmacy Technicians, Community Health Workers, CNC Operators, Industrial Machinery Mechanics, Automotive Technicians, Production, Purchasing Agents, Human Resources Assistants, Bookkeeping, Accounting and Auditing Clerks

Summary of Program Activities:

The program will expand apprenticeships, provide opportunities for underserved populations and ensure workforce system alignment through strong career pathway development. The five target sectors are IT and Cybersecurity, Healthcare, Manufacturing, Transportation and Logistics and Public Sector.

List of credentials awarded:

Automotive/Transportation Technology Certificate, Drafting Technology Certificate, Water Technology Certificate, Viticulture Enology Technology, Employment Concentration

Targeted Regions: Inland Empire (Riverside and San Bernardino Counties)

Public Contact Information:

Name: Carrie Harmon

Title: Director of Workforce Development