

N E W S L I N E

Newsline No.: 2016-24

Date: February 29, 2016

DWC Posts Calendar for its 24 Courts on Website

The Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC) has posted a new court calendar on its website, listing daily hearing schedules at its 24 district offices and satellites. The calendar is updated daily and shows the schedule for the next two weeks.

Legal practitioners and others can now confirm court dates from their computers. "This will help them plan their schedules and will also reduce calls to our district offices," said DWC Chief Judge Paige S. Levy.

The calendar is downloadable and sortable as a spreadsheet. Step-by-step instructions demonstrate how to filter by attorney name using Excel format.

Because of the size of the calendar download, it will be primarily of use to attorneys and claims administrators who are looking up multiple cases in which they are a party. Injured workers looking for information on their own cases are best served by using the public information case search tool or contacting the Information and Assistance Unit.

###

The California Department of Industrial Relations, established in 1927, protects and improves the health, safety, and economic well-being of over 18 million wage earners, and helps their employers comply with state labor laws. DIR is housed within the Labor & Workforce Development Agency. Non-media inquiries can contact DIR's Communications Call Center at 1-844-LABOR-DIR (1-844-522-6734) for help in locating the appropriate division or program in our department.