The Acting United States Attorney charges:

COUNT ONE

[18 U.S.C. § 1347]

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Defendant.

At all times relevant to this Information:

- Defendant and Others
- Defendant JAMES CHEN ("defendant CHEN") resided in Los Angeles County, California.
- Clevis Management Inc., doing business as Haeoyou 2. Pharmacy ("HY"), was a corporation owned and controlled by defendant CHEN, with its principal retail pharmacy business located at 38656 Medical Center Drive, Palmdale, California, and its headquarters located in the City of Commerce, both within the Central District of California. From its retail location, HY filled prescriptions for medications, including those compounded medications more fully described below. From its headquarters location, and for the purpose of generating income through submitting claims to TRICARE, as described below, and insurance companies, HY coordinated the work of so-called marketers to obtain prescriptions for medications and owned and operated an Internet-based "telemedicine" site known as "Healtharchy.com," through which individuals could seek prescriptions for medications without actually being examined by a physician or other person authorized to prescribe medications.

- 3. Trestles RX LLC and Trestles Pain Management Specialists LLC (collectively "Trestles RX") were business entities located at 25971 Pala, Suite 120, Mission Viejo, California, in the Central District of California, and were operated by Co-Schemer #1, Co-Schemer #2, Co-Schemer #3, CoSchemer #4, and others.
- 4. Co-Schemer #5 was the pharmacist-in-charge of HY's retail location in Palmdale, from which he supervised other pharmacists and staff and directed them to fill, or otherwise authorized the filling of, prescriptions, including prescriptions for the compounded medications described below.
- 5. Co-Schemer #6 and Co-Schemer #7 were residents of the State of Florida who negotiated, and received referral fees pursuant to, an agreement between Trestles RX and HY.

B. TRICARE

6. TRICARE was a health care benefit program, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 24(b), that provided coverage for Department of Defense beneficiaries world-wide, including active duty service members, National Guard and Reserve members, retirees, their families, and survivors.

7. For the calendar year 2013, HY submitted approximately zero claims to TRICARE for reimbursement for filling prescriptions for compounded medications as described below. For the calendar year 2014, HY submitted approximately 31 claims to TRICARE, substantially all of which were submitted in the month of December 2014, for reimbursement for filling prescriptions for compounded medications, as described below, for a total claimed amount of approximately $81,401. For the period of approximately January 1 through May 31, 2015, inclusive, HY submitted approximately 2,798 claims to TRICARE for reimbursement for filling prescriptions for compounded medications, as described below, for a total claimed amount of approximately $62,654,938.

C Compounded Medications

8. In general, "compounding" is a practice by which a licensed pharmacist, a licensed physician, or, in the case of an outsourcing facility, a person under the supervision of a licensed pharmacist, combines, mixes, or alters ingredients of a drug or multiple drugs to create a drug or medication tailored to the needs of an individual patient. Compounded medications are not FDA-approved, that is, the FDA does not verify the safety, potency, effectiveness, or manufacturing quality of compounded medications. The California State Board of Pharmacy regulates the practice of compounding in the State of California.

9. Compounded medications may be prescribed by a physician when an FDA-approved drug does not meet the health needs of a particular patient. For example, if a patient is allergic to a specific ingredient in an FDA-approved medication, such as a dye or a preservative, a compounded medication can be prepared excluding the substance that triggers the allergic reaction. Compounded medications may also be prescribed when a patient cannot consume a medication by traditional means, such as an elderly patient or a child who cannot swallow an FDA-approved pill and needs the medication in a liquid form that is not otherwise available.

II. THE FRAUDULENT SCHEME

10. Beginning on or about a date unknown, and continuing to in or about June 2015, in Los Angeles and Orange Counties, within the Central District of California, and elsewhere, defendant JAMES CHEN, Co-Schemer #1, Co-Schemer #2, Co-Schemer #3, Co-Schemer #4, Co-Schemer #5, Co-Schemer #6, and Co-Schemer #7, together with others known and unknown to the Acting United States Attorney, knowingly, willfully, and with the intent to defraud, executed and attempted to execute a scheme and artifice: (1) to defraud TRICARE as to material matters in connection with the delivery of and payment for health care benefits, items, and services; and (2) to obtain money from TRICARE by means of material false and fraudulent pretenses and representations and the concealment of material facts in connection with the delivery of and payment for health care benefits, items, and services.

- The fraudulent scheme operated, in substance, in the 11. following manner:
- Defendant would own and control HY and would a. cause HY to enter into agreements with Trestles RX, as negotiated by Co-Schemer #6 and Co-Schemer #7, and others, and would cause HY to hire in-house staff, to refer prescriptions for compounded medications ("CM prescriptions") to HY in exchange for huge kickbacks that would be paid from reimbursements from TRICARE.
- Defendant CHEN would cause claims to be made to b. TRICARE for reimbursements based on the CM prescription referrals, knowing that the CM prescriptions were suspicious, if not fraudulent, because, among other things:
- None of the CM prescriptions arose from a (1) bona fide physician-patient relationship as required by TRICARE rules;
- Substantially all of the CM prescriptions (2) were electronically sent to HY from marketers, instead of from the (purported) prescribing physicians or the patients, even though a large number of the CM prescriptions contained a facsimile header or similar information that falsely stated that the sender was a "doctor's office" or similar reference that identified the sender as a health care provider;
- Substantially all of the CM prescriptions (3) were identified using an identical or nearly identical form with pre-formulated compounds, unlike the typical prescription forms that HY received and acted upon;

- Substantially none of the patients for whom CM prescriptions were provided, and for which HY filled and submitted claims to TRICARE, ever paid, nor did HY attempt, or intend to collect, any copayment, even though HY knew that it was required to collect a copayment for each CM prescription under TRICARE rules;
- HY mailed substantially all of the filled (5) CM prescriptions to the patients in numerous states where, as was commonly the case, it was clear from the CM prescriptions that the purported prescribing physicians were in different states from the patients;
- HY conducted substantially no due diligence (6) upon receipt of the CM prescriptions to verify whether, in fact, the patients actually sought the subject CM medications, even though, shortly after HY entered into its agreement with Trestles RX, defendant CHEN and his staff knew that HY had called a random sample of CM patients, each of whom denied seeking the CM prescriptions;
- The CM prescriptions were of questionable, if any, medical value as all were for generic pain, scarring, stretch marks, erectile dysfunction, or "metabolic general wellness" (vitamins);
- The compounded formulations for each of the (8) purported maladies were virtually identical from patient-topatient and none of the CM prescriptions was specifically formulated based on the individualized needs, medical history, allergic reaction potential, contraindications, or conflicts

- (9) HY had filled substantially no similar prescriptions in the two previous calendar years, except for approximately 30 such prescriptions in December 2014 (that resulted from HY's negotiations with Trestles RX);
- (10) HY intended to submit each of the CM prescriptions to TRICARE for reimbursement because few, if any, insurance carriers or entities would at the relevant time honor claims for reimbursement for similar prescriptions; and
- (11) The amounts that HY claimed to TRICARE for reimbursement for each CM prescription were astronomical compared to the previous or other claims that HY typically submitted for reimbursement.

III. EXECUTION OF THE FRAUDULENT SCHEME

- 12. On or about the dates set forth below, within the Central District of California, and elsewhere, defendant CHEN, together with others known and unknown to the Acting United States Attorney, knowingly and willfully executed and attempted to execute the fraudulent scheme described above, by submitting and causing to be submitted to TRICARE, on behalf of HY, the following false and fraudulent claims:
- a. On or about March 3, 2015, a claim for filling a CM prescription sent to HY by or through Trestles RX, purportedly authorized by R.M., regarding beneficiary E.G., for which TRICARE paid HY approximately $46,982;
- b. On or about March 19, 2015, a claim for filling a CM prescription, purportedly authorized by Dr. H.C., regarding beneficiary K.D., for which TRICARE subsequently paid HY approximately $194,707; and

c. On or about March 24, 2015, a claim for filling a CM prescription, purportedly authorized by Dr. G.E., regarding beneficiary M.R., sent to HY by HY in-house marketer Y.H., for which TRICARE subsequently paid HY approximately $59,944.

Re: Owner, Clevis Management Corporation dba Haoeyou Pharmacy

Provider No. 1770910465

Dear Mr. Chen:

The Director of the State Department of Health Care Services (Department) has been notified of your June 19, 2017, conviction in the United States District Court, Central District of California (U.S. v. James Chen, No. 17-cr-00061) for violation of 18 United States Code section 1347. This is a conviction involving fraud and that has been determined by the Department to be substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a provider of service. You are on record as being an owner of Clevis Management Corporation, Inc., dba Haoeyou Pharmacy. Pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 14123, subdivision (a), the Director is required to suspend a provider of service for conviction of any felony or any misdemeanor involving fraud, abuse of the Medi-Cal program or any patient, or otherwise substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a provider of service. If the provider of service is a clinic, group, corporation, or other association, conviction of any officer, director, or shareholder in that organization of such a crime shall result in the suspension of that organization and the individual convicted if the director believes that suspension would be in the best interest of the Medi-Cal program. (See also 42 C.F.R. § 1001.101(a) & (c); Welf. & Inst. Code, § 14123.25.)
