TRAVEL AND SUBSISTENCE

ARTICLE XIII TRAVEL ALLOWANCE AND SUBSISTENCE

127.

Individual Employers shall have the right to move journeymen and/or apprentices from job to job within the area of this Agreement provided that the Contractor shall give telephone notice of such transfer to the Union. However, such journeymen and/or apprentices shall not be required to furnish their own means for traveling between jobs or job sites during the working day.

128.

It is agreed that when an employee is directed by an Individual Employer to travel to a job outside of U.A. Local. No. 159's jurisdiction that is forty (40) or more miles distant from 1308 Roman Way, Martinez, California that does not require the employee to stay overnight, such employee shall be paid, in addition to his/her regular wages and fringes, an amount equal to his/her regular hourly rate of pay of wages and fringes for travel time in excess of one (1) hour each way. It is agreed one (1) hour is the time required to travel forty (40) miles.

129.

It is agreed that when an employee is directed by an Individual Employer to travel to a job away from his/her home to an out-of-town job, or from one out-of-town job to another, and such move requires the individual to change his residence or stay overnight, the Individual Employer shall pay transportation expenses, meals, subsistence and travel time based on the location of the new job not to exceed eight (8) hours in any one calendar day. It is agreed that the intent of this paragraph is to express the obligation of the Individual Employer to transport the employee to jobs outside the jurisdiction of the Local Union in which he/her has been working when he/her is directed by the Individual Employer to so move.
