RESOURCES FOR SMALL BUSINESS MANAGERS & OWNERS

- Free safety training materials to use with your employees.
- Free tips on how to comply with Cal/OSHA's IIPP regulation.

THESE MATERIALS HELP SMALL BUSINESS MANAGERS & OWNERS TO:

- Identify ways to prevent injuries in your workplace.
- Engage workers in your safety program.
- Meet Cal/OSHA training requirements.
- Provide short interactive safety training activities tailored to your business.

BY USING THESE MATERIALS, YOUR EMPLOYEES WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Identify safety hazards in the workplace.
- Learn about and find solutions to hazards in the workplace.
- Contribute to a safe working environment.

The Small Business Safety Training Program offers easy-to-use training materials for small businesses.

Three training packets are available:

- Small Business Safety Training Guide (applies to any small business)
- Restaurant Safety Training Guide
- Janitorial Safety Training Guide

Materials are available online at:

"This program was a great experience. We ended up with simple training materials that I can use with my staff to teach about health and safety in our restaurant. It's amazing the respect they have for the safety situation now."

- Restaurant Manager, Berkeley
