Review and approval of minutes from Nov. 8, 2016

Motion by Luisa Martinez to approve minutes

Motion seconded by Nicholas Esquivel and Don Simonich.

Minutes for November 8, 2016 approved.

Business

I. Department of Education San Joaquin County

Brightwood College (BPPE known as “Kaplan”)

Pending approval in near future. Need to do a third site visit due to safety concerns by site inspector, Brett Moss. Also, curriculum has not been fully approved by Don Simonich, San Joaquin County Office of Education. Approval for both are required before the ECCC committee for final approval.

New Creation College

Still pending site visit and lab not ready. Remove from agenda until they are ready.

San Joaquin Valley College

New offsite location in Salida, CA has been visited by site inspectors Mark Bowden, Central Valley JATC, and Sergio Cortez, ABC Norcal. New site is approved.

II. Chancellor’s Office of Community Colleges

Nothing to report.

III. Other

DISCUSSION

Update the curriculum/crosswalk schedule meeting with experts (Diana Limon – Chair) Diana Limon went over the changes from last meeting. Emphasized that this is to gather information only and to get feedback. This will be submitted to the ECCC for approval based on information gathered.

Diana Limon stated that NRLT – Title 24 is mentioned on the crosswalk. Luisa Martinez added that minimum qualifying hours for NRLT classroom hours is 180-240. David Schneider questioned the red ink in crosswalk. Luisa Martinez stated red will be changed to black ink on the ECU website.

Discussion on OSHA 10 verses OSHA 30 and pushing for OSHA 30. Nick Esquivel discussed prop 39 funding to offer all instructors for OSHA 10 to be certified at no cost. There is funding for instructors - course #OSHA 500/510 (unsure of course name and number) to instruct OSHA 30.

IV. Adjournment

Next meeting to be held in October location, date and time to be determined.

Meeting adjourned by Luisa Martinez at 2:21 p.m.
