

Cal/OSHA's New COVID-19 Regulations... What You Need to Know as an Employer

It is important for employers to understand exactly what their responsibilities are with respect to worker health and safety during this current pandemic. New COVID-19 regulations, which became effective on November 30, 2020, are intended to ensure worker health and safety during the pandemic. This webinar will address employer responsibilities under the new regulations, which requires them to establish, implement and maintain an effective COVID-19 Prevention Program (CPP). This webinar, developed for business owners, managers and supervisors, will cover the following title 8 sections:

- 3205 – COVID-19 Prevention
- 3205.1 – Multiple COVID-19 Infections and COVID-19 Outbreaks
- 3205.2 – Major COVID-19 Outbreaks
- 3205.3 – COVID-19 Prevention in Employer-Provided Housing
- 3205.4 – COVID-19 Prevention in Employer-Provided Transportation

Attendance is FREE, but you must register in advance to reserve your space.

Scan the QR Code to the left with your smart device camera or click here to go to our COVID-19 Webinar Webpage to view available dates and to register for this free webinar.

Cal/OSHA Presenters: Carmen Cisneros and Dan Leiner

Carmen Cisneros has served as the Area Manager of the San Diego Cal/OSHA Consultation Services Branch since 2013. Prior to that, she was an Associate Safety Engineer with Cal/OSHA's Enforcement Branch. Carmen has over 19 years of experience in the safety and health field working with various industries including agriculture, construction, landscaping and manufacturing. As a safety engineer, she worked on high-profile and complex cases.

Dan Leiner is the Area Manager of the San Fernando Valley Cal/OSHA Consultation Services office in Van Nuys. He started his career with Cal/OSHA in 1994 as an industrial hygiene consultant with Cal/OSHA Consultation's Santa Fe Springs area office before becoming an Area Manager in 2000. Dan has over 30 years of experience in the health and safety field as an industrial hygienist working in the aerospace industry, on a Los Angeles County lead-using industry outreach project, and with Cal/OSHA Consultation. Dan holds Bachelors and Master of Science degrees in Environmental and Occupational Health from California State University, Northridge.

If you have any questions, please email SFVConsultation@dir.ca.gov.