How to complete a document cover sheet

Forms filed with your local Workers' Compensation Appeals Board (WCAB) office need a "document cover sheet." We need the cover sheet so the information in your forms can be read by our Electronic Adjudication Management System (EAMS).

You may complete the attached document cover sheet using a typewriter or with block printing. This form can also be completed online at http://www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/FORMS/EAMS%20Forms/ADJ/DWCCA_10232_1.pdf.

Use the attached sample form as a guide.

If you are submitting a form to your local WCAB office for the first time, check the yes box next to the question: "Is this a new case?" If you have previously submitted forms or know you have an open case, check no.

If you have more than one case open at your local WCAB office, and the form you are currently filing applies to two or more of these cases, check the box indicating "companion cases exist."

Check the yes box next to "walk-through" if you are hand-delivering your documents to the WCAB office.

Fill in the date the form is prepared using the format shown on the sample. Fill in the case number if you have an open case. If you are submitting this form for two or more cases, just put one case number in the first section. You will put the companion case numbers in the companion case sections.

Indicate whether your injury is a "specific injury" or a "cumulative injury." A specific injury is caused by one event, and the specific date of the event should be entered as the start date. Use the date format in the sample form. A cumulative injury is caused by repeated events, movements, or exposures at work. Enter both a start date and an end date using the format in the sample form. If you do not know the start date, use the date one year prior to the end date.

Fill in the body part(s) using only the "body part code list" provided on the last page. Pick the code(s) which best describes the area of your injury. If you have more than five injured body parts, contact an Information and Assistance (I&A) officer for further instructions.

Check the correct "unit" box to direct your form to the right unit. Most filings are sent to ADJ.

Information & Assistance Unit guide 17

If the form you are filing only applies to one case, you don't have companion cases, and you only need to fill out the first two sections of the cover sheet. In this situation, you only print and file the first page of the cover sheet.

If the form you are submitting applies to two or more cases, you have companion cases. Fill out a separate section on the cover sheet for each companion case in the same way you completed the first section. In this situation, print and file all the pages you fill out.

Don't file blank cover sheet pages.

Send the completed filing packet to the correct district office. Office addresses and phone numbers are attached to this guide.

Additional instructions for filing forms in EAMS can be found on line in the "EAMS OCR forms handbook" at http://www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/eams/SampleFiles/EAMS_OCR%20handbook.pdf.

If you need help, call an Information and Assistance \(I&A\) office, or attend a workshop for injured workers. The local I&A phone numbers are attached to this guide. You can get information on a local workshop from the I&A office or on the Web at www.dwc.ca.gov.

The information contained in this guide is general in nature and is not intended as a substitute for legal advice. Changes in the law or the specific facts of your case may result in legal interpretations different than those present here.

When sending documents to a district office, please make sure they are not folded or stapled. Send them in a large manila envelope. Please see the EAMS OCR forms handbook for further instructions.
