COUNT ONE

[18 U.S.C. § 1349]

A. INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this First Superseding Indictment:

///

1 The Conspirators

2 1. Defendant YAROSLAV PROSHAK ("PROSHAK"), also known as
3 ("aka") "Steven Proshak," was the Chief Executive Officer,
4 Secretary, and Registered Agent of ProMed Medical Transportation,
5 Inc. ("ProMed"), an ambulance transportation company located in 6 Gardena, California.

7 2. Defendant SHARETTA MICHELE WALLACE ("WALLACE"), aka
8 "Michele Wallace," was a Manager at ProMed.

9 3. Defendant DAVID PUSTILNIKOV ("PUSTILNIKOV"), aka "David
10 Pustilnikova," was a Shareholder of, and Biller for, ProMed.

11 4. Defendant EMILIA E. ZVEREV ("ZVEREV"), aka "Mila 12 Zverev," aka "Emilia Zvereva," was the Billing Manager for 13 ProMed.

14 5. Co-conspirator Sergey Alekseyevich Mumjian ("Mumjian"),
15 aka "Serge Mumjian," aka "Sergey A. Mumdzhyan," was the Office
16 Manager and Biller for ProMed.

17 The Medicare Program

18 6. The Medicare Program ("Medicare") was a federal health
19 care benefit program, affecting commerce, that provided benefits
20 to individuals who were over the age of 65 or disabled. Medicare
21 was administered by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid
22 Services ("CMS"), a federal agency under the United States
23 Department of Health and Human Services. Medicare was a "health
24 care benefit program" as defined by Title 18, United States Code,
25 Section 24(b).

26 7. Medicare was subdivided into multiple parts. Medicare
27 Part B covered, among other things, ambulance services.

1 8. Individuals who qualified for Medicare benefits were
2 commonly referred to as "Medicare beneficiaries." Each Medicare
3 beneficiary was given a Medicare identification number.

4 9. Medicare covered ambulance services only if furnished
5 to a beneficiary whose medical condition at the time of transport
6 was such that ambulance transportation was medically necessary. A 7 patient whose condition permitted transport in any type of 8 vehicle other than an ambulance did not qualify for Medicare
9 payment. Medicare payment for ambulance transportation depended
10 on the patient's condition at the actual time of the transport
11 regardless of the patient's diagnosis. To be deemed medically 12 necessary for payment, the patient must have required both the 13 transportation and the level of service provided.

14 10. Ambulance transportation was only covered when the 15 patient's condition required the vehicle itself or the 16 specialized services of the trained ambulance personnel. A 17 requirement of coverage was that the needed services of the 18 ambulance personnel were provided and clear clinical 19 documentation validated their medical need and their provision in 20 the record of the service, which was usually in the form of a
21 document referred to as a "run-sheet."

22 11. In the absence of an emergency condition, ambulance
23 services were covered only under the following circumstances:
24 (1) the patient being transported could not be transported by any 25 other means without endangering the individual's health; or (2)
26 the patient was before, during, and after transportation, bed
27 confined. For purposes of Medicare coverage, "bed confined"
28 meant the patient met all of the following three criteria: (1)

1 unable to get up from bed without assistance; (2) unable to
2 ambulate; and (3) unable to sit in a chair (including a
3 wheelchair).

4 12. A thorough assessment and documented description of the 5 patient's current state was essential for coverage. All
6 statements about the patient's medical condition or bed confined 7 status must have been validated in the documentation using 8 contemporaneous, objective observations and findings.

9 13. For ambulance services to have been covered by 10 Medicare, the transport must have been to the nearest institution 11 with appropriate facilities for the treatment of the illness or 12 injury involved. The term "appropriate facilities" meant that the 13 institution was generally equipped to provide care necessary to 14 manage the illness or injury involved. Covered destinations for 15 non-emergency transports included: (1) hospitals; (2) skilled 16 nursing facilities; (3) dialysis facilities; (4) from a skilled
17 nursing facility to the nearest supplier of medically necessary
18 services not available at the skilled nursing facility where the 19 beneficiary was a resident, including the return trip, when the 20 patient's condition at the time of transport required ambulance
21 services; and (5) the patient's residence only if the transport 22 was to return from a hospital and the patient's condition at the 23 time of transport required ambulance services.

24 14. CMS contracted with Medicare Administrative Contractors
25 ("MACs") to process claims for payment. Prior to September 2008, 26 the MAC that processed and paid Medicare ambulance claims in 27 Southern California was National Heritage Insurance Company
28 ("NHIC"). After September 2008, Palmetto GBA was the MAC that

1 processed and paid Medicare ambulance claims in Southern
2 California.

3 15. To bill Medicare for services rendered, an ambulance
4 company submitted a claim form (Form 1500) to NHIC or Palmetto
5 GBA. When a Form 1500 was submitted, usually in electronic form,
6 the provider certified:

7 a. the contents of the form were true, correct, and 8 complete;

9 b. the form was prepared in compliance with the laws
10 and regulations governing Medicare; and

11 c. the services being billed were medically
12 necessary.

13 16. A Medicare claim for payment was required to set forth, 14 among other things, the following: the beneficiary's name and 15 unique Medicare identification number; the item or service
16 provided; the cost of the item or service; and the name and 17 Unique Physician Identification Number ("UPIN") and/or the 18 National Provider Identifier ("NPI") of the physician who 19 prescribed or ordered the item or service.

20 B. THE OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

21 17. Beginning on or about May 6, 2008, and continuing
22 through on or about October 8, 2010, in Los Angeles County,
23 within the Central District of California, and elsewhere,
24 defendants PROSHAK, WALLACE, PUSTILNIKOV, and ZVEREV, together
25 with co-conspirator Mumjian, and others known and unknown to the 26 Grand Jury, knowingly combined, conspired, and agreed to commit
27 health care fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
28 Section 1347.

1 C. THE MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

2 18. The object of the conspiracy was carried out, and to be
3 carried out, in substance, as follows:

4 a. On or about April 10, 2008, defendant PROSHAK
5 opened two corporate bank accounts for ProMed at Bank of America,
6 account numbers xxxxx-042867 and xxxxx-45440.

7 b. On or after April 10, 2008, defendant PROSHAK
8 became a signatory on an existing corporate bank account for 9 ProMed at Bank of America, account number xxxxx-06672.

10 c. On or about May 1, 2008, defendant PROSHAK
11 purchased ProMed.

12 d. On or about May 6, 2008, defendant PROSHAK filed a 13 Statement of Information with the State of California as the 14 Chief Executive Officer, Secretary, and Registered Agent of 15 ProMed.

16 e. On or about July 4, 2008, defendant PROSHAK
17 executed and submitted an electronic funds transfer agreement to 18 Medicare, requesting that all future reimbursements from Medicare
19 be directly deposited into ProMed's Bank of America account,
20 account number xxxxx-06672.

21 f. On or about July 17, 2008, defendant ZVEREV
22 executed and submitted to Medicare an Electronic Data Interchange
23 ("EDI") Agreement as Billing Manager for ProMed.

24 g. On or about August 7, 2009, defendants PROSHAK and 25 ZVEREV opened a corporate bank account for ProMed at Bank of 26 America, account number xxxxx-03077.

27 h. Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about
28 October 8, 2010, defendants PROSHAK, WALLACE, PUSTILNIKOV,

1 ZVEREV, and co-conspirator Mumjian provided ambulance
2 transportation services, through ProMed, to Medicare
3 beneficiaries knowing that the beneficiaries' medical condition
4 did not necessitate the ambulance transportation services.

5 i. Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about
6 October 8, 2010, defendants PROSHAK, WALLACE, and ZVEREV, and co-
7 conspirator Mumjian instructed ProMed employees to document a
8 reason justifying ambulance transportation services on run-sheets
9 even if one did not exist.

10 j. Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about
11 October 8, 2010, defendants WALLACE and ZVEREV, and co-
12 conspirator Mumjian instructed ProMed employees not to write
13 certain words, such as "walk" or "assisted to gurney," on run-
14 sheets because Medicare would not pay for the ambulance
15 transportation services if these words were present.

16 k. Defendants PROSHAK, WALLACE, PUSTILNIKOV, and 17 ZVEREV, and co-conspirator Mumjian knowingly submitted, and 18 caused the submission of, false and fraudulent claims to Medicare
19 on behalf of ProMed for these medically unnecessary ambulance
20 transportation services.

21 l. As a result of the submission of false and 22 fraudulent claims, Medicare made payments to ProMed's corporate
23 bank account at Bank of America, account number xxxxx-06672.
24 Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about October 8, 2010,
25 defendants PROSHAK, PUSTILNIKOV, and ZVEREV, then would transfer
26 and disburse, and cause the transfer and disbursement of, monies
27 from ProMed's corporate bank accounts to themselves and others,
28 including co-conspirator Mumjian and defendant WALLACE.

1 m. Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about
2 October 8, 2010, defendants PROSHAK, WALLACE, PUSTILNIKOV, and 3 ZVEREV, and co-conspirator Mumjian concealed, and attempted to 4 conceal, their submission of false and fraudulent claims to 5 Medicare by altering and causing the alteration of run-sheets and 6 other documentation related to the ambulance transportation
7 services provided by ProMed.

8 19. Between on or about May 6, 2008, and on or about 9 October 8, 2010, ProMed submitted to Medicare claims totaling 10 approximately $5,169,069 for ambulance transportation and related 11 services, and Medicare paid ProMed approximately $2,679,854 on 12 those claims.

JUDGMENT AND PROBATION/COMMITMENT ORDER

MONT	DAY	YEAR
Dec.	7,	2015

In the presence of the attorney for the government, the defendant appeared in person on this date.

COUNSEL Elon Berk (Retained)

(Name of Counsel)

PLEA GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea. NOLO NOT
CONTENDERE GUILTY

FINDING There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
18 U.S.C. § 1349: Conspiracy to Commit Health Care Fraud as charged in Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment ; 18 U.S.C. §§ 1347, 2(b): Health Care Fraud; Causing an Act to be Done as charged in Counts 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of the First Superseding Indictment .

JUDGMENT AND PROB/COMM ORDER The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $600, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $804,755.27 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

A partial payment of $13,000 shall be paid immediately. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $2,500, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants Sharetta Michele Wallace,

USA vs. PROSHAK, Yaroslav

Docket No.: CR 13-00264 (A) SJO-1

Emilia E. Zverev, and Sergey Alekseyevich Mumjian for payment of restitution to the extent that said co-participants are determined liable for the same victim losses ordered in this judgment. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Yaroslav Proshak, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 108 months. This term consists of 108 months on each of Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 all to be served concurrently.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
6. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state, or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

7. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
9. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs.
10. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider.
11. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency treatment and mental health treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
12. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider to assist in defendant's mental health treatment.

The Court advises the Defendant of his right to appeal.

The Court recommends that the defendant shall participate in the Bureau of Prison's Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP) and that he shall be designated in Southern California.

In the interest of justice the Court dismisses the underlying indictment as to this defendant only.

The Court Orders the bond exonerated.

USA vs. PROSHAK, Yaroslav

The Court Orders the defendant remanded into the custody of the U.S. Marshal forthwith. Clerk issues to U. S. Marshal remand order # D 9824.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

		Court STRIKES all twenty-three MILs, the oppositions thereto, and their amendments. Defendants may re-file, but are limited to eight MILs. The Government is limited to five. Per the Order Denying Defendants' Ex Parte Application to Amend Standing Order(ECF No. 192), counsel must personally meet and confer as to each motion, and include a declaration with any new filing that they have complied with the meet and confer requirements. Because counsel are seemingly oblivious to the burden they have placed on this Court, the Court finds it necessary to issue the following additional case management orders. All MILs must be re-filed no later than Tuesday, July 21, 2015. Oppositions are due on or before Monday, July 27. No replies are to be filed unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The Court ORDERS the Government to file and serve its trial brief, final exhibit list and final witness list no later than 12:00 p.m. on July 30, 2015. All Jencks Act material must be disclosed no later than 12:00 p.m. on Monday, August 3.
