(See Labor Code Section 861.) Where this order is inconsistent with Division 2, Part 2, Chapter 6 of the Labor Code (the Phase-In Overtime for Agricultural Workers Act of 2016, which incorporates Chapter 1 as stated), Chapter 6 of the Labor Code governs, including the applicable effective dates, unless this order provides greater protections or benefits to agricultural employees. (A) An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. An "on duty" meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. An employer of a shepherd or goat herder may be relieved of this obligation if a meal period of 30 minutes cannot reasonably be provided because no one is available to relieve a shepherd or goat herder tending flock alone on that day. Where a meal period of 30 minutes can be provided but not without interruption, a shepherd or goat herder shall be allowed to complete the meal period during that day.

(B) An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

(See Labor Code Section 512)

12. REST PERIODS

Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However, a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as hours worked for which there shall be no deduction from wages. This section applies to shepherders and goat herders to the extent practicable.

13. SEATS

When the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats, suitable seats shall be provided for employees working on or at a machine.

14. OTHER WORKING CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO SHEEPHERDERS AND GOAT HERDERS

Shepherders and goat herders shall be provided with all of the following at each work site:

(A) Regular mail service, which, in the case of open range locations, shall mean mail delivery not less frequently than once every seven days.

(B) An appropriate means of communication, including but not limited to a radio and/or telephone, which will allow shepherders and goat herders to communicate with employers, health care providers, an emergency relating to the herding operation, and government regulators. Employers may charge shepherders or goat herders for all other uses. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude an employer from providing additional means of communication to the shepherd or goat herder which are appropriate because telephones or radios are out of range or otherwise inoperable.

(C) Visitor access to the herder's housing.

15. EXEMPTIONS

If, in the opinion of the Division after due investigation, it is found that the enforcement of any provisions in Section 7, Records; Section 12, Rest Periods; or Section 13, Seats, would not materially affect the welfare or comfort of employees and would work an undue hardship on the employer, exemption may be made at the discretion of the Division. Such exemptions shall be in writing to be effective and may be revoked after reasonable notice is given in writing. Application for exemption shall be made by the employer or by the employee and/or the employee's representative to the Division in writing. A copy of the application is filed with the Division.

20. POSTING OF ORDER

Every employer shall keep a copy of this order posted in an area frequented by employees where it may be easily read during the workday. Where the location of work or other conditions make this impractical, every employer shall keep a copy of this order and make it available to every employee upon request. A copy of this order shall be posted and made available in a language understood by the shepherd or goat herder.
