

BEFORE THE
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH
APPEALS BOARD

In the Matter of the Appeal of:

R.A. CAMPBELL, INC.
1270 E. Burnett Street
Signal Hill, CA 90755

Employer

Docket No. 09-R6D2-1210

DECISION AFTER RECONSIDERATION

The Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board (Board), acting pursuant to authority vested in it by the California Labor Code and having taken this matter under reconsideration on its own motion, renders the following decision after reconsideration.

JURISDICTION

On March 11, 2009, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health (the Division) issued to R.A. Campbell, Inc. (Employer) three Citations alleging six violations of Title 8, Cal. Code of Regulations. Employer filed timely appeals contesting all items in the citations.

This matter came on regularly for a scheduled prehearing conference before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) for the Board. The matter was settled at that conference. Thereafter, the ALJ memorialized the agreement in an Order, and an attached summary table, dated July 29, 2009. In the Order, the ALJ stated "Good cause having been shown, the stipulation of the parties quoted below is accepted and the matter is resolved as set forth in the attached summary table." The Order further recited that the parties entered in to the agreement to avoid protracted litigation and the costs associated therewith. However, neither the Order nor the summary table specified the nature of the good cause justifying the reclassification of Citation 2, Item 1.

On August 25, 2009, the Board on its own motion ordered reconsideration of the ALJ Order pertaining to the existence of good cause for the reclassification of Citation 2 Item 1.

The Division submitted an Answer to the Order of Reconsideration setting forth the factual basis for the agreement relevant to the reclassification of Citation 2 Item 1.

ISSUE

Whether there was good cause to reclassify Citation 2 Item 1.

REASONS FOR DECISION AFTER RECONSIDERATION

Board Regulation 364.2 states “(a) Upon a showing of good cause, the Appeals Board may dispose of the issues on appeal by granting a written motion of the parties made at any time, or an oral motion of the parties made on the hearing record or in the prehearing conference.” Absent allegations or indications of fraud, the Board has recognized the Division’s prosecutorial discretion to withdraw citations as part of negotiated settlements. (Northern California Paper Recyclers, Inc., Cal/OSHA App. 09-2352, Denial of Petition for Reconsideration (Jun. 1, 2010); California Dept. of Forestry, Cal/OSHA App. 85-1379, Denial of Petition for Reconsideration (Aug. 28, 1986).) Here, it appears the Division appropriately exercised its prosecutorial discretion and chose to reclassify Citation 2, Item 1, based on new evidence provided by Employer. This information was provided after the citation was issued and before the prehearing conference, and led the Division to conclude there was not a substantial probability of serious physical harm resulting from the hazard that was the subject of the citation. On this record it is appropriate to accept the agreement and stipulation of the parties. (E & H 126 Investment Inc, Cal/OSHA App. 08-3994, Denial of Petition for Reconsideration (Jul. 30, 2009); see also County of Sacramento v. Workers’ Comp. Appeals Bd. (3rd Dist. 2000) 77 Cal.App.4th 1114.)

Therefore, the ALJ’s Order resolving the matter is affirmed and the terms of the settlement as set forth in the summary table are reinstated, with the additional statement that Citation 2, Item 1, was modified based on new information provided by Employer.

CANDICE A. TRAEGER, Chairwoman
ART R. CARTER, Board Member

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH APPEALS BOARD
FILED ON: JANUARY 14, 2011